Reverse Charades is a hilarious twist

on a classic game where the entire team has 60 seconds to act out as many words as one team member can guess. It's a fast-paced, fiercely fun team competition that's an absolute riot with families, school groups, party-goers, work teams or among a few close friends. But be warned . . . you're in for big and dangerous doses of fun.

NOW Introducing the Junior Edition with 360 cards/720 words developed for our younger audience ages 6 to 10...fun for everyone! (Sample words: trampoline, itchy, piggy back, jack-in-the-box, washing the dishes)

1. Split into teams of three or more. Decide on a number of rounds or a point target to win.
2. 1 word guessed correctly = 1 point. Each team has one minute to guess as many words as possible.
3. Each team selects a guesser (everyone gets a turn) and the rest of the team acts out the words.
4. Shhh! Not a peep among the team members.
5. Ready, set, go!

"In Reverse Charades, no one is embarrassed, because everyone is acting silly together. And yes, there is a certain chaos. And yes, it's the very kind of chaos that makes the fun major. ~Bernie DeKoven, MajorFun.com

"The most popular party game I've introduced to people all year! Absolutely a blast to play...wildly funny...noisy, raucous fun!" ~Tom Vasel, DiceTower.com
